To whom it may concern,

Our professional team is skilled in working with banks on their REO properties and our office services a high volume of properties within the Antelope Valley. One of our responsibilities is to hire contractors to perform initial services and to provide on-going monthly maintenance while a property is in our inventory. A reliable contractor, who performs quality work at a reasonable price, is a key to being a successful REO REALTOR.

We have utilized services from multiple contractors and Boardwalk Contractors far surpasses the competition. Bids are completed quickly and precisely, prices are in-line with job expectations, and they can be relied upon to complete the job within the indicated timeframes. We are confident they would provide your firm with great service.

If you have any questions you are welcome to contact me at the numbers below.

Respectfully,
